1.3 Information about Taicang

Taicang is situated in the southeast part of Jiangsu Province, bordering on the Yangtze River in the east and Shanghai in the south covering an area of 810 km². The total population is 947,000, with registered population of 472,000.

Taicang boasts long history and profound culture. Two thousand and four hundred years ago, the King of Wu established granary in this region, hence the name "Taicang" (meaning "the great granary"). During Yuan and Ming Dynasties, Taicang was an important harbor and commercial port, known as "the Wharf of Six States". It was the place where Zheng He's fleet weighed anchor (Zhenghe, a most famous Chinese navigator, who led his fleet to voyage to the Western seas for seven times). Taicang was rich in talent and cultural heritage. In Ming and Qing Dynasties, literati in Taicang came forth in large numbers, including the famous ones such as Wang Shizhen, Zhang Fu, and Wu Meicun. Taicang was the birthplace of the Loudong School of Painting, Kunqu opera, and Jiangnan Sizhu (south Yangzi string and pipe ensemble). In modern and contemporary times, Taicang took pride in celebrities such as Wu Jianxiong (the famous physicist), Zhu Diwen (the Nobel Prize winner in physics), Tang Wenzhi (the educator), Wu Xiaobang (the dancing master), as well as Zhu Qizhan and Song Wenzhi (painting masters). Taicang was also the city of bridge (a card game), martial arts, dragon and lion dances, and folk music of China.

Since China's reform and opening up, Taicang has seen sustained rapid economic growth and social development. For many years, the comprehensive strength of Taicang has ranked in the top ten among the "National Hundred Counties (Cities)". Taicang was among the six counties and cities of Jiangsu Province which took the lead in reaching a comprehensive well-off level. Taicang has a great sporting tradition, with citizens actively participating in sports activities. It is one of the first batch of “National Outstanding Sports Counties” and the first batch of “Outstanding Sports Cities in Jiangsu Province”. Taicang has hosted a number of major national and international events and has hosted the IAAF Race Walking Challenge (Taicang) for three consecutive years, and the event has been listed as one of the Six Brand Events by the Jiangsu Provincial Sports Bureau.

During the “Twelfth Five-Year Plan” Period, Taicang is committed to building a “modern garden city” as well as “a beautiful golden Taicang” with a high level of modernization, featuring a more developed economy, more comfortable living conditions, a more harmonized society, a more prosperous culture, more progress in ecology and happier people.

2.2 Entry Visas

The Foreign Affairs Office of Taicang Municipal Government, a special government agency in charge of foreign affairs, is responsible for visa matters and has provided the following guidelines for submitting the Visa Application and for requesting the Invitation Letter.

Basic Visa Application Documents

1. Passport: Original passport with at least six months of remaining validity and a page for the visa, also a photocopy of the passport's data page and the photo page (if it is separate). If the period of validity is not enough, Member Federations should urge participants to apply for a new passport and submit relevant information of the new passport to the LOC.
2. Visa Application Form and Photo: One completed People's Republic of China Visa Application Form with a recently-taken colour passport photo attached (frontal with no hat), taken against a light background.
3. If you are not applying for the visa in the country of your citizenship, you must provide the original copy and photocopy of your valid certificates or visa of stay, residence, employment or student status, or other valid certificates of legal stay provided by the relevant authorities of the country where you are currently staying. Please also inform the LOC as soon as possible if you are applying under these circumstances.
4. Original Chinese passport or original Chinese visa (applicable to those who once had Chinese citizenship and later became a foreign national). If it is your first time applying for a Chinese passport, you need to provide an original copy of your Chinese passport and a photocopy of the photo and information page in the passport. If you have obtained a Chinese visa before and want to apply for a Chinese visa with a renewed foreign passport that does not contain any Chinese visa, you should present a photocopy of the previous passport's photo and information page, along with a photocopy of the page that contains the previously obtained Chinese visa. (If your name on the current passport differs from that on the previous one, you must provide an official document of name change.)

Documents to be provided for receiving the Invitation Letter

1. Photocopy of the valid passport of the invitee including a photocopy of the previous visa page.
