Race walker asks court for Olympic status for women's 50k

World champion race walker Inês Henriques is aiming for gender equality by asking the Court of Arbitration for Sport to add the women's 50 kilometre event to the 2020 Tokyo Olympics.

CAS will hear her appeal against the International Olympic Committee and the IAAF on July 29-30.

The 50K walk is the only men's medal event on the Olympic track and field program, with no female equivalent. The IAAF has said the women's 50K currently lacks the depth and quality to justify Olympic status.

When Henriques won the first world championship title in London in 2017, only seven athletes from four countries started the race.

Only four finished as Henriques set a world record of 4:05:46. China's Hong Liu has since lowered the record to below four hours, with 3:59:15 on 9th Mar. 2019 in Huangshan (CHN)

The 39-year-old Portuguese walker won the 2018 European Championship title in a 19-athlete race.

International Results

XXXIII Gran Premio Cantones de La Coruña incorporating I.A.A.F Challenge Race, La Coruña (ESP) (Sat. 8th Jun.)

Ecuadorian junior Glenda Morejon won the women's 20km with a world leading time on her debut at the distance. Her 1:25:29 was also a South American record and world junior best. She finished five seconds ahead of China's world champion Jiayu Yang with Liu Hong (CHN) third.

It was the first international 20km race in which three women have finished inside 1:26. Outside of championship races, it was also the first time 10 women have finished inside 1:29.

In winning the men's race Toshikazu Yamanishi (JPN) was less than half a minute outside his world lead with 1:17:41. Massimo Stano (ITA) finished a mere four seconds back to remove three minutes from his personal best, breaking the Italian record. Japan's world record holder Yusuke Suzuki took the final podium place with 1:17:54.

Perseus Karlstrom (SWE) and Caio Bonfim (BRA) set respective national records and Christopher Linke equalled the German record. Tom Bosworth finished 25th in a solid 1:21:23.

As with the women's race, the men's contest had fantastic depth. It was just the second time in history that eight men had finished inside 1:19 in a 20km race walk.

British Grand Prix of Race Walking incorporating British Athletic/England Athletics/Race Walking Assoc. & Southern Area 20km Championships, Leeds (Sun. 30th Jun.)

Callum Wilkinson clocked the fastest 20km by a British athlete on home soil to win the British GP of Race Walking ahead of the winner of the last three editions Tom Bosworth.

Wilkinson recorded a course record 1:21:46 at Roundhay Park to win the National title and secure his place in the British team for the IAAF World Championships in Doha later this year.

Bosworth also secured his Doha place, although his time of 1:24:10 was outside the qualifying time, he already at the time in his pocket from earlier in the year.

Italian Teodorico Caporaso (1:24:33) took third overall, while British under-23 50km record-holder Cameron Corbishley was fourth (3rd in the British race) in a personal best 1:24:42.

The women's race was won by Heather Lewis in 1:34:49, ahead of Bethan Davies (1:36:59) and Erika Kelly (1:42:54). The winning time was outside the Doha qualifying mark of 1:33:30.

Dick and Zena 10000m & 5000m Races, Bury (Sat. 25th May)

Eleven walkers took part in the Bury track 10000m and 5000m races, reports Roy Gunnett. Weather wise it was a pleasant day. From the gun the 10000m field quickly sorted into two groups. Out front Martin Fisher, Tony Bell and Tony Malone – all walking at sub 60 minute pace. Behind were the rest of the field closely bunched together at around 70 minute pace.

Towards the end of the race Martin pulled ahead of Tony Bell, who in turn pulled ahead of Tony Malone – all attained a time under the hour. In the 5000m it was a close contest between John Payn and Andrea Lennon with Andrea finally getting the better.

This is our one SYL race each year that is not at Millhouses Park, this year we moved from the Woodbourn Road track to the paths of the Olympic Legacy Park on the site of the old Don Valley Stadium, reports Brian Adams. The race was preceded by a coaching event that targets the qualifiers for the primary schools' finals and new walkers representing Sheffield Schools in the county schools' championships.

Only one regular walker in attendance, Simon Pugh taking an easy 'scratch' victory.

Target times for the new walkers were calculated from their primary or secondary school qualifying races, most were amazingly close to their targets, six walkers within seven seconds of their target. Just two beating their target times.

Welsh Athletics Junior Championships, Queensway Stadium, Wrexham (Sat. 15th Jun.)

The future looks bright, certainly on the female side for race walking in Wales, with the influences of Bethan Davies and Heather Lewis on show at the Welsh Age Group Championships in Wrexham, reports Martin Bell. Though with only two male athletes entered, a lot more work needs to be done.

In the combined U13 and U15 1000m, it was Pembrokeshire Harriers Gracie Griffiths who crossed the line first, taking the U15 title, clearly benefiting from doing a couple of training sessions with Heather. Behind her, Cardiff's Millie Gold took gold in the U13 girls on her debut race walk, having been inspired by watching Bethan train. Nia Parry of Newport Harriers was next across the line for silver in the U13 girls, followed closely by Bridgend's Gemma Price, taking silver in the U15s. The only boy was Bridgend ACs Frazer Higginson.

Onto the combined U17 and U20 3000m. Leading the athletes' home was Megan Stratton-Thomas, just ahead of Cardiff's Dan Mckerlich, both taking their respective U20 titles. Behind the leading, Pembrokeshire Harriers Kasia Cook showed a welcome return to form just ahead of the Welsh Schools Championships, with a time less than a second short of her pb, to take the U17 title from Menai Track & Field's Georgia Parkinson. Georgia was the only athlete racing over 3000 to set a personal best, taking 25 seconds of her road best time. Swansea's Shannon Thomas held off Newport's Poppy Stowell-Evans, with Shannon taking U20 silver and Poppy the U17 bronze in her debut over the distance.

London Inter Club Challenge incorporating Enfield Race Walking League, Hendon (Sun. 16th Jun.)

Eight of the twenty walkers who took part recorded quicker times than they did in the first LICC race at the end of April, reports Ron Wallwork. Three recording their best times ever at the distance. Conditions were favourable and with fewer people on the track was possibly a contributing factor.

Prior to the start competitors, officials and supporters joined in a dedicated applause in memory of Ken Matthews.

British Masters 5km Road Walk Championships, Horwich (Sun. 16th Jun.)

This was the 13th edition of the Horwich BMAF 5km race walk, reports Ian Richards. The event started with a one minute tribute to Fred Pearce who was a long standing official at the event. Eight walkers new to the event started and all walked stylishly well, perhaps showing the way to a few of the more established walkers. There was a fast start to the race and the field very quickly became spread out before being surrounded up by the 5km runners who also share this event.

Patrick Murphy of Eire established a small lead over Ian Richards on the first lap with Tony Taylor a little way behind. They kept this order until the end, but Ian Richards had the honour of winning the age graded award with 97.6%.

In the ladies' race, Carolyn Derbyshire led from the start and battled for the three laps with Bill McFadden (Scotia's top male walker). First timer Wendy Kane finished in second, just missing out on the thirty minute mark on the hilly course. Julie Bellfield walked consistently to come home in a very respectable time for third. There were very high age graded score from both Noel Blatchford and Ann Wheeler.

Most improved athlete on the day went to Gerard McConnell, who bettered his time of last year by 5 minutes. Unfortunately, it wasn't enough however to lift Scotland above Eire or winners England on the age graded international scoring.

Sheffield Primary Schools Finals, Sheffield Hallam University City Stadium (Thu. 20th Jun.)

Over 150 youngsters took part in walking over a series of five meetings, reports Brian Adams. With 20 qualifying for each of the finals the walking was mostly good especially in the Y5 age groups.

Ana Garcia's old school, Dobcroft took first places in both the boys and girls Y5 races with the girls' winner only qualifying as the 12th fastest.

Natalie Myers' old school Bradway provided both winners in the Y6 age group. Heidi Sibbald, the girls Y6 Champion finished at the back of the field as a Y5 last year but was keen to race this year and had trained hard at school.

Sarnia Walking Club Avantis Championship Race 6, Cambridge Park Grass Track (Sun. 23rd Jun.)

Stuart Le Noury walked to a win over Rob Elliott lapping him on the line in the process as he finished in 15:33 at Cambridge Park over 3000 metres, reports Rob Elliott. Phil Lockwood took third place ahead of a close race for fourth between Peter Beckerleg and Kevin Le Noury. Peter holding the edge throughout most of the race and holding his challenger off by a second.

Leading woman was Kay Coulson in 22:25 ahead of Jayne Le Noury. For two of the walkers it was a return to the grass track at Cambridge Park after a gap of over 50 years. Making use of the temporary track whilst the Footes Lane track is being renovated and moving off the park paths. Masters walkers Dave Dorey, well into his 70s and Mick Le Sauvage almost touching 80 years old, went back to their track roots with Dave Dorey recalling the days when Sarnia Walking Club used the track for their 'One Hour' walks amongst others.

With just four starters the 5th SYL race soon developed into two separate races, reports Brian Adams. Simon Pugh was first away with a 1:42 second advantage over Tony Bell and Lara MacColl a few strides further back, that gap didn't vary much. Ben Heley slotted in 15 seconds behind Simon with 2.5km to go and it took him till the last 500m to close in and take a two second victory. Lara eventually won battle for third place a minute and a half later.

Peter/Flers /Keswick Cups, Leicester (Tue. 25th Jun.)

Leicester Walking Club's annual Peter/Flers/ Keswick Cups over two 1km laps saw stylish walking from all the competitors with Olivia Servadei and Mina Mihell particularly catching the eyes of the judges and taking home style certificates, reports George Smolinski.

Ben Allen, in his final season as a "schoolboy", has another year polishing the Keswick Cup as leading Leicestershire over-15 boy for the fourth successive time.

Similarly, Lyla Bryan will have to buy more Goddard's silver polish (other brands are available!!) as she won the Flers Trophy (leading under-15 girl) for the fourth consecutive year. Izzy Smolinski took silver with Sophie Williams bronze.

In the Peter Cup race (now in its 67th. Year!!) for under-15 boys, Jamie Wellard, champion for the last 2 years, made a winning seasonal debut and smashed his personal best by almost a minute. Huey Bryan came second.

The Keswick Team Trophy for girls was awarded to Sophie, Olivia and Mina representing Blaby Stokes Striders.

Without the support and expertise of the members of Leicester Walking Club (and parents) in timekeeping and judging, these events could not have taken place. So, a big thank you for their valued contributions in ensuring that Leicestershire's young walkers have an opportunity to compete locally on a regular basis.
